Sydney Folk Festival - Major Artist Announcement

Sydney Folk Festival has announced a whole swag of new artists for the returning urban folk fest!

Joining We Mavericks (who were revealed at last month's launch) is an electrifying mix of artists offering a rich diversity of folk. Heading the list is all-women powerhouse, the Miriam Lieberman Trio (right) with their seamless blending of African influences, blues-infused melodies, luscious vocal harmonies and soaring strings. With them is award-winning, outstanding young singer-songwriter Felicity Dowd (below) - FolkFedNSW's Young Folk Artist 2020.

Michael Waugh is another major headliner! A songwriter's songwriter, a compelling live performer and an extraordinary storyteller, Michael is joined by the incredible Liz Frencham and the equally incredible John Bedggood. Also featured in this first major artist announcement are acclaimed Australian folk duo Penny Davies & Roger Illott, veteran Sydney five-piece collaboration Baggage and Stuff, the eclectic Raduga Trio with their energetic gypsy music, American-infused country folk duo Corn Nut Creek, NSW North Coast duo (and Folk Alliance Australia's Young Artist of the Year 2019-20) Saije, Sydney Scottish favourites Kejafi and FolkFedNSW's Junior Folk Artist 2020 Freya Peterson.

Sydney Folk Festival 2021 offers a world of music in the heart of the city! Launched in August 2019 to great acclaim - with an online version in 2020 due to COVID – this huge 7-venue 3-day event - featuring 60+ individual shows and two festival hubs - returns to Sydney with an electrifying brand of urban folk.

Whether you like your folk big and rowdy or simple and spare, a soulful, solo singer expressing big ideas or a whirling outfit playing up a storm, you'll be spoilt for choice from 13-15 August in the Sydney CBD!

A celebration of folk music, culture and community, bespoke concerts highlighting the diversity of folk, workshops and interactive sessions... plus dance and spoken word programs! With something for everyone, Sydney Folk Festival 2021 truly promises "A world of music in the heart of the city!"
